

SHOW ME

Neighborhood Art Week

June 1 – June 15, 2025

Empowering Public Art Made by Missourians and Neighbors

*Chalk Art * Sculpture * Murals * Folk Art * Yard Art * Recycled Materials * Etc*

- Open to any Missouri resident.
- Register your participation and location on the MU Extension website by May 25.
- Judges and People's Choice Statewide Awards
- Public art contributes to the sense of place where you live.
- Working with neighbors to create public art can be fun!

Seeking creative ideas for how you or your neighbors can participate in this week? Contact a team member.

David Burton (Springfield-area)
burtond@missouri.edu

Jackie Spainhower (NW Missouri)
spainhowerj@missouri.edu

Deana Dothage (St. Charles-area)
deanadothage@missouri.edu

Ashley Allen-Brown (Camdenton-area)
allen-browna@missouri.edu

Elena Stephenson (Kansas City-area)
elenastephenson@missouri.edu

Extension

University of Missouri

An equal opportunity/ADA institution

Participate by using materials available at home to create a sculpture, do chalk art, paint a mural, or create other visual displays in front of a residence or in a shared neighborhood space. This project encourages expressing creativity, no matter the skill level.

Want more details about this event? Visit <http://extension.Missouri.edu>